Unconditional love energy is all around us. It can heal us, help us grow as individuals, connect us to our mission and purpose; and help us increase empathy, connection and awareness towards all life.

How do we get in touch with this powerful and transformative energy?

We can call upon it, open ourselves up to it, connect directly with it or receive the energy directly from someone who is channeling it for us.

Chapter 1: Discovering Unconditional Love Energy:

How did I discover this energy?

It started with a squirrel. Yes. A squirrel.

I was sitting outside on a porch during a warm sunny day several years ago. Although the day itself was absolutely beautiful and mesmerizing, my inner world and self felt like it was crumbling. I felt lonely, confused, scared and inadequate in many ways. My love life was in a cycle of pain and trauma and I didn't know if I could trust myself with working with my clients. I just felt off.

Before that moment happened, I had learned animal communication about a year prior and so I decided to use the tools I had acquired and see if the sentient beings in nature had some message to share, and some advice to give in order to help me get out of my inner depression. Little did I know that it would do a lot more than just that. This moment was about to change and shift my entire life.

As I was sitting on the porch I looked up at a magnificent tree. I was at the same height as some of the top branches and I felt a pull for me to stand up, reach out and caress some of the leaves. As soon as I did this, a wave of cooling-calm energy caressed me back. In a different part of this tree I noticed a squirrel. This squirrel honestly appeared completely ordinary but something about this individual intrigued me and brought my energy to her.

It was time to close my eyes, go into my heart space and make the connection.

I connected to her soul and as soon as I did, I felt the urge to ask one question, “what message do you have to share?” I immediately received a response.

Color. Energy. Light pink. Life. Everywhere I looked there was flowing light pink energy in what appeared to be flowy dashed lines in every direction. It was everywhere. It was in a constant movement, neither quick, nor slow; it was just right.

I asked the squirrel, “what is this?”, and her reply was, “Unconditional Love energy. It is all around you. All you must do is reach out and open yourself up to it. Once you do this, you will never lose connection.”

I was amazed that this little being that humans deem as a nuisance had so much wisdom and insight, that this little being gave me the answer to healing my circulation condition, my depression, my anxiety, my stress, my trauma and my fears. This little being showed me how to heal the world. At first this statement felt very bold to think- let alone say out loud, but with time and countless clients later, I realized that it was true.

I invite you to come with me on this journey of unconditional love and healing.

Chapter 2: The Creation of Unconditional Love Reiki

One day when channeling an Usui Reiki session for a client, I saw an Unconditional Love Flower Seed bloom in my hand. I found it beautiful and the effects and feel of it amazed me. I brought the seed to my heart and saw it bloom. I connected in meditation and found that this seed has long term effects and can be used on almost every species.

I started planting them during every session, in every client. I learned over time to send them water and sunlight energy to increase their abundant energy flow.

A little less than a year later, I planned a trip to go into the Corcovado Rainforest located in the Osa Peninsula in Costa Rica. I planned to write a channeled book from the animals' perspectives there, along with channeling the consciousness of unconditional love energy to share what she has to express.

The nature was so incredibly beautiful that honestly,
I felt infinite during the entire experience and trip. It felt touching and amazing. I met so many amazing animals (and people) including snakes, frogs, parrots, cows, and more. I fell in love with life fully during the trip.

As I arrived on a beach with no other human inhabitants, I looked around. Pure life- a breath of fresh air. No internet, no cell service, no people.
Green, pink, orange, yellow; a galore of colors
surrounded me instead.

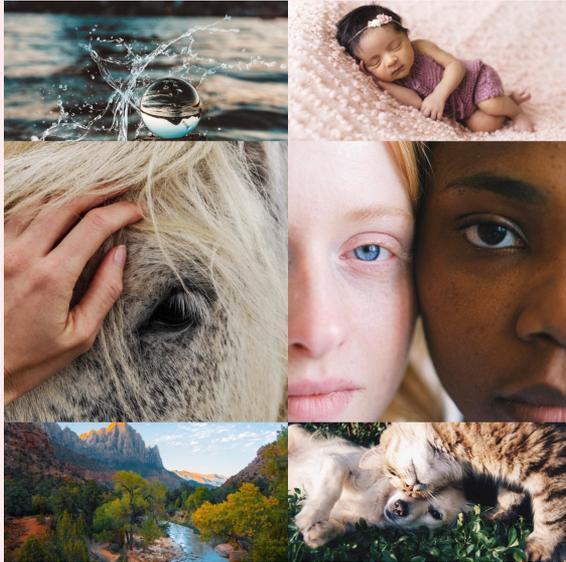

I connected to the consciousness of Unconditional
Love with my notebook and pen in hand.

What does she wish to share? Unconditional Love Reiki.

I channeled her and wrote down every symbol, every step, every answer to every possible question, everything. And through that process, I downloaded every energy and aspect and absorbed her presence fully. We became one at that moment and a part of her will always reside within me, just like it does for every other life and energy.

At that moment I discovered that love is the true core of all and Unconditional Love can heal all.

Who can Receive this Energy?:

Adults

Children

Infants/Fetuses

Animals

Nature

Water

What to Expect receiving Unconditional Love Energy:

Unconditional Love energy will go to the root cause of any issue. For example, if you are having a heart issue and it was caused by trauma and heartbreak then the issue will go towards the trauma and heartbreak. If you are struggling with depression and the root cause is past-life pain or current-life trauma then it will go towards that. If you are struggling with stress and the root cause is having a career that is not aligned with your life mission then the energy will go towards helping you connect to your life's mission.

Whatever the root cause, the energy will go towards it. It could be physical, mental, emotional or spiritual.

When receiving energy; most people will experience a sense of peace, relaxation, grounded connection, inner awareness, and presentness. Sometimes people will receive physical side effects such as flash backs (when memories come to the surface to be understood, accepted and released), crying (to allow emotions to be heard, experienced and let go of), tingling/warmth/cold/heaviness/lightness (the energy connecting with you and doing what is for the greatest and highest good for you). You may even fall asleep (for a deep cleansing process), or may experience bursts of different emotions or the urge to suddenly focus on a new project or complete something.

The energy can also help you meditate and connect with your higher self and higher truth.

Everyone has a different experience from the energy and so it is most important for you to relax, keep an open mind and go along for the ride.

You may experience visuals, sensations, hear energy/vibrations or voices or even see colors.

Unconditional Love Reiki will bring everything that needs to be healed and cleared to the surface and so this can bring up trauma and emotions from the past that are being healed from the energy. The most important aspect is to accept the energy, allow yourself to release all that comes, and have patience during the process. Everyone experiences it differently.

Some individuals experience immediate results and others may take a few days to a month or 2 to fully process the energetic healing.

How to have Basic Access to this Energy on a Daily Basis:

Unconditional Love Energy is always in reach. All you have to do is call upon it and open yourself up to it. To do this just say on a daily basis or even multiple times a day:

“I call upon pure Unconditional Love Energy to enter my physical body and all my energy fields for healing and releasing all that is needed for the greatest and highest good possible. I unconditionally love this energy and I unconditionally love myself and all life. I thank this energy and myself infinitely.”

Then you can just relax and allow this energy to flow within you. It is best to do this exercise laying down or sitting with your eyes closed or you can be in nature (which is the best energetically). You can call upon this energy at any point though with your eyes open if you need to in a situation that you are unable to rest in.

I would suggest to call upon this energy first thing in the morning and right before you go to sleep.

Channeled Message from the Consciousness of Unconditional
Love Energy:

“Embrace yourself. You know who you are. All you must do is connect to your core and unlock all your energy. Embrace yourself, embrace all aspects of who you are to allow yourself to ascend upwards and away from all that does not serve you. I have an important message for you. Breathe. Breathe with me at this very moment. Breathe in for a count of 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. Hold for 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8. Let go for 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. Repeat 3-10 times or whenever you feel it is complete. You will know if you listen to the energy. All life has energy. Breath has energy. Breath is life. Relax. There is no rush to get to the next moment. There is never a next moment. It is always just The Moment.

There is something you must know about yourself. You know how to heal. When you tap within your core you will find out how. You know how to heal from everything. On occasion something is not meant to be healed at all and if that is the case then trust your core love- to know how to let go of life.

Trust is the most important aspect of life. But trust can only work properly if your intuition is in place of your instinct and thoughts.

It is time to change your life, right here and right now. Start with a moment of silence. Listen, truly listen to anything. It doesn't matter. All that matters is that your attention is focussed on the outside environment.

Now go inwards. Untense your muscles and go inwards. This is powerful. You are a powerful being and I believe in you completing this experience. It is time to go inwards. Go into your heart space. It is located in your heart chakra in the center of your chest. Breathe. Go in as if you just took your final breath before making a plunge deep into a beautiful clear lake. What will you find? You will see but you can only see if you trust. Keep going in until your awareness is not in your head, but deep within your chest. Live. Be. Ask questions if you have them. Listen to colors, to messages in the form of; visuals, feelings, thoughts and colors. Experience the core of healing.

What do people have to say about their experiences?:

“I went to see Chloe for a reiki treatment at a difficult time in my life when I was experiencing depression and isolation. She was so kind and welcoming and after the treatment explained to me what she assessed was happening energetically in my body. She also channeled my spiritual guides, offering reassuring messages about all the love and support I had available to me "beyond the veil" even if I was experiencing loneliness in the world. The next morning I awoke with a tangible feeling of joy and well-being in my heart. Chloe's gifted reiki work helped keep me going through a time of deep sorrow. I will always be grateful for her.” - Astrologer

Preparing for a Session:

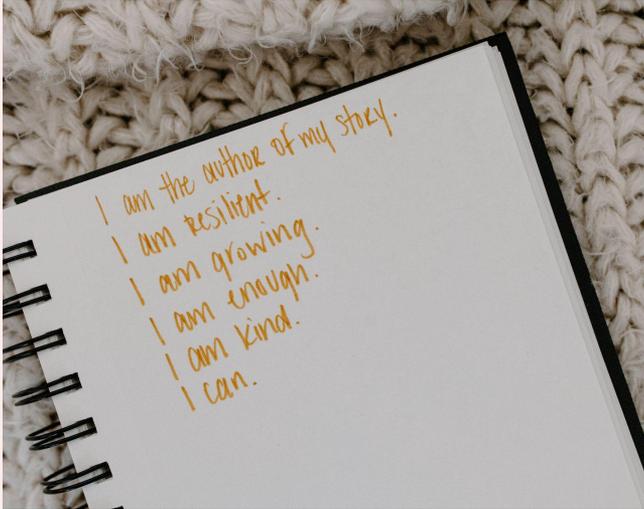

For a minimum of 24 hours before a session or class refrain from eating meat or consuming alcohol because it lowers vibrations and vibrates on a lower fear based level then foods such as; fruit, veggies, grains, nuts and seeds, or liquids such as; water, juice, smoothies and coconut water.

You will be able to receive more energy and feel the energy stronger without having meat or alcohol in your system.

Having lots of liquids as well as having fruit right before a session is very beneficial for the healing process.

Different Ways to Raise your Vibration:

1. Eat more fruits, veggies, nuts, seeds and grains.
2. Eat less meat and animal products.
3. Say daily positive affirmations
4. Catch yourself when you have a pessimistic thought form and replace it with an encouraging, inspiring and loving thought form. For instance if you have a thought of, "I am so depressed." Change it to, "I am feeling emotions of depression but I am accepting these feelings and moving towards peace and inner love with every passing moment.” It is important to say you feel something negative instead saying you are something negative.

5. Play binaural beats and listen to music that uplifts and inspires you that is saying positive or neutral words instead of negative/degrading words.
6. Take time to breathe and be present.
7. Cut out toxic people and situations in your life as best as you can and learn how to close your aura and be selective with who is in your energy field when you are around challenging people.
8. Do the things you love and always make time for self care.
9. Find a meditation or mindfulness exercise you enjoy on Youtube or from a specific individual and do at least a 5-20 minute meditation every day. Feel free to change up this meditation as often as you'd like.
10. Walk barefoot on the Earth or in a body of water or hug a tree as they are very loving and kind.

Unconditionally Loved. I unconditionally love you.
